Minority Rights - Jewish Virtual Library June 28, 1919 Treaty of Versailles and Protection of Minorities. The Germans, even before the Versailles of Jewish Minorities in Poland Treaty was completed, were preparing to argue the case for minority rights to protect Germans living outside of Germany's borders. After the rejection of proposals to include the protection of minorities within the Covenant of the League of Nations itself, the minority issue was finally directly and separately addressed.
